

817—8.5(15H) Special consideration. In addition to the standards listed above, the commission may give consideration to other factors to determine certification status in order to ensure that only high-quality youth mentoring programs are certified.

At the discretion of the commission, on-site audits may be conducted to determine certification.